In today’s world, disruption can emerge from any place and in unexpected ways. When leaders miss the warning signs, organizational agility, resilience, and transformation become harder to achieve. Implementing Enterprise-Wide Transformation is a research-driven and practitioner-led program designed to help you solve complex transformation challenges and create a blueprint for your organization’s near- and longer-term transformation. Guest speakers help to further demonstrate important conceptual examples, and significant time is designated for peer collaboration and plan development.
